

Open Air Blues Festival Brezoi - Romania's Woodstock

22-27 of July 2025

Do you like blues music and nature? We might have something for you...

The Open Air Blues Festival in Brezoi is an annual event taking place in July, set within the vibrant city of Brezoi in Vâlcea County. It spans 6 days and 6 nights, nestled in the heart of the mountains along the Lotru river valley in Valcea County. The festival promises an immersive experience filled with captivating blues music, a gathering of wonderful individuals in an idyllic natural setting—a harmonious community unified by shared values.

While the lineup this year is to be announced, take a look at last year's names:

Want to visit around?

DAY TRIP TO DRACULA'S CASTLE (BRAN CASTLE)

Let's visit Dracula's nest! Sitting high on top of a cliff in the middle of Transylvania, Bran Castle is surrounded by an aura of mystery tied to both the myth of Bram Stoker's Count Dracula and the infamous Vlad Tepes—also known as Vlad the Impaler.

DAY TRIP TO TRANSALPINA HIGHWAY

Enjoy the fantastic mountains landscape of Transalpina, the highest road of Romania, that reaches 2145 meters altitude at its highest point. To add some local flavors, try a traditional sheepfold menu and pottery workshop with Horezu artisans.
